Executive Summary

KBank has integrated the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights (UNGP) into our Human Rights Due Diligence (HRDD) process, with the aim of identifying human rights risks associated with the Bank's operations, value chain, and new business relationships, such as mergers, acquisitions, and joint ventures. This annual assessment prioritizes actual and potential human rights impacts, and KBank has implemented preventive, corrective, and remediation measures to address these risks. Monitoring plans are in place to ensure the effectiveness of these actions, ensuring no human rights violations occur throughout the value chain.

The results of the human rights risk assessment across the three key scopes are as follows:

All entities identified with salient human rights risks across the three scopes have implemented mitigation or remediation measures. As a result, in KBank's 2024 Human Rights Performance, there were no reports or complaints regarding human rights violations within our operations, and no further remediation actions were required.

Human Rights Policy Commitment

Human Rights Policy

KBank is committed to sustainable business operations. We recognize that respect for human rights is an important responsibility associated with employees, customers, suppliers, and business partners including agents, joint venture (Incorporated), government, and local communities related to our business activities. Therefore, KBank has established a human rights policy that conforms to key legal principles and international standards, such as the United Nations Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights (UNGPs), principles of humanity and rights in accordance with the International Labor Organization (ILO), International Bill of Human Rights (comprising of Universal Declaration of Human Rights - UDHR, International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights - ICCPR and International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights - ICESCR, and Principles of the United Nations Global Compact (UNGC). Bank's human rights policy is designed as the guideline for corporate-wide implementation.

Scope

This policy applies to all operations of KBank and other companies in KASIKORNBANK FINANCIAL CONGLOMERATE as well as employees, customers, suppliers, and business partners. All have the responsibility to respect human rights and to comply with the laws and regulations governing the protection of human rights at the national and international levels. KBank expected that all relevant stakeholders, as per mentioned, adhere to these human rights principles that are consistent with their own. Additionally, KBank commits to prevent and respect the following human rights issues: child labor, forced labor, human trafficking, freedom of association, the right to collective bargaining, equal remuneration, and discrimination.

Human Rights Due Diligence

KBank has established guidelines for human rights management and due diligence practices by carrying out assessments of risks and human rights-related impacts, preventive, and remedial measures in the event of human rights violations, monitoring and reporting of implementation results, and providing channels for receiving and handling human rights-related complaints. An annual revision of the human rights policy is included as well. Human rights due diligence process has been developed to identify and assess potential impacts and risks relating to respecting human rights in our own operations, value chain or activities related to our business and new business relations such as mergers, acquisitions, and joint ventures (Incorporated). Groups at risk of human rights issues covered women, children, indigenous people, migrant people, and disabled people that are more vulnerable to human rights violations. Additionally, KBank has arranged a series of trainings and communications to enhance knowledge, understanding, and awareness of human rights principles for employees on a regular basis to prevent human rights violations. The management guidelines cover all of stakeholders.
